BEAN ID#A871103

I'm a 2 y/o Lab-mix girl with a heart of gold who's looking for a family who can return all the love & affection I have to give. I'd thrive in a home with another dog to play with. Vaccinated, microchipped & spayed, I'm unsure of cats, but I get along great with all sized dogs & people.

LULU ID#A873674

About 4 y/o. I'm a quiet girl who doesn't ask for much other than to follow you around & be close. I'm not overly playful with other dogs, but coexist peacefully & keep to myself. It's believed I won't mind cats. I have minor allergies that are easily controlled. I'm also vaccinated, chipped & spayed.

KAZO ID#A855097

A handsome boy with battle-worn ears & a heart full of love, I sleep & eat in my crate like a champ but I'm happiest being close to my people as a quiet, loving companion. Great with cats & kids, I can be selective with male dogs but I'm respectful & responsive to correction. I'm leash trained, neutered, vaxed & chipped.

BROWNIE

A7y/o gal who enjoys going on walks, I can initially be scared when the leash comes out but my confidence is improving daily. I'm crate trained & doing pretty well with the potty routine at my foster's using a dog door but will need someone patient willing to work with me. I may have been abused.

DALLAS

11y/o a super active 5 y/o boy who loves attention but is a little unsure in new situations, so I'll need time to adjust. Mostly house trained, I use a dog door, crate up easily, & walk nicely on a leash. I love playing with other dogs but am untested with cats. I have a slight palsy-type tic that doesn't affect me at all. t doesn't affect me at all. am vaxed, spayed & chipped.

VALENTINE

I am a calm sometimes mischievous 3 y/o, 54lb. Shepherd/ Doberman-mix girl who likes short walks, playing outside, & solving food puzzles. I like to collect stuffed toys & keep them safe in my crate. With a little warm-up time, we could be best friends. Please call about me.

LUNA

Inarrowlydodged becoming a shelter statistic when kind humans rescued me—thinking I liked other dogs. LOL, nope. I'm a "one-woman wolf pack." I'm 2 y/o & love to have fun but am currently sulking at boarding like a teen grounded from Wi-Fi. Got snacks, hikes, & no other dogs? Congrats—you just met your new soulmate!

HONEY

Hi, I'm Honey 1.5 years young, cancer survivor, & certified zoomie queen. I beat the big C & now I'm ready to beat loneliness. I love other dogs, snacks, & sprinting like I just stole your socks. I've got energy for days & cuddles for nights. Forever home wanted: must love wiggles, chaos, & unconditional joy.

BENNY

I'm 85lbs. of American bulldog & misunderstood brilliance. People say I'm "a lot" I say I'm just vibing on a different frequency. I've been overlooked for being big, quirky, & choosy about my dog pals. Little kids? Nope. Grown-ups, especially big guys? I'm all in. I love car rides, routines, & hanging with my person. Got a truck & a chill lifestyle? Let's hit the road!

ARIES

I'm a smart & strong 8 y/o, 70lb. Heeler-mix girl who wants to be your one & only companion. I'm house trained & know commands "sit," "lay," & "heel." I love to eat but not chicken or grain because I'm a bit allergy prone. I come with Vet Care Support for Life. Please call about me.
